Amendment 1:

HONOR CODE ≠ HONOR BOARD:

WHAT?

Removes sections 5, 7,8
(Appellate Review, Elections, Impeachment) from the Honor Code.

WHY?

These sections deal with the Honor Board as an organization, so they are better suited in the student government bylaws

Amendment 2:

A RE-WRITE:

WHAT?

The actual content of our procedures stays the same, featuring:
A glossary section!
Chronological order!
Less typos!

WHY?

Makes the procedures easier to navigate and understand.

Amendment 3:

INSERTING APPEALS:

WHAT?

Takes what StAR and the Honor Board already follow as the Appeals procedure and actually puts it into the Honor Code.

WHY?

Makes the Appeals Procedures more easily accessible in the Honor Code.

Amendment 4:

TITLE IX ADJUSTMENTS:

WHAT?

Removes the Honor Board's involvement in Title IX cases. Instead they can be filed through StAR and/or outside authorities

WHY?

- We do not feel qualified to hear these cases.
- It's considered best practice
